Instructions for obtaining a credit for excess UI/WF/SWF, Disability Insurance, and/or Family Leave Insurance Contributions

To claim the credit, you must enclose Form NJ-2450 with your NJ-1040 return. If this form is not enclosed with the NJ-1040, or if the required information from the W-2 forms is not available to substantiate the claim, the credit will be denied. The law prohibits the processing of claims submitted later than two years after the calendar year in which wages were paid.

If a joint NJ-1040 return is filed and both spouses/CU partners have excess contributions withheld by two or more employers, each spouse/CU partner must file his or her own claim form along with the NJ-1040 return.

If any single employer withholds more than the maximum for either UI/WF/SWF, disability insurance, and/or family leave insurance contributions, enter only the maximum on the claim form. Any amounts over the maximum were withheld in error and must be refunded by that particular employer. Refunds of overwithholdings of contributions by an individual employer are the responsibility of that employer and cannot be claimed as a credit on your Income Tax return.

If additional space is required due to the number of employers, enclose a list with the required information as on the NJ-2450 form. If this list is incomplete or is not enclosed with the claim, the credit will be denied.

After lines 1A through 1F are completed, complete all necessary calculations from lines 2 through 6. Carry the amounts on lines 4, 5, and/or 6 to the specified lines on the NJ-1040 return.

If you are notified that your claim has been denied by the Division of Taxation for any reason, you must refile your claim for refund of excess UI/WF/SWF or family leave insurance contributions with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development on Form UC-9A, "Employees Claim for Refund of Excess Contributions." Once your claim has been denied by the Division of Taxation, it cannot be reinstated.
